Expanded Scout Council Trust Fund Planned

Expansion of the trust fund of the Cahokia Mound Boy Scout Council is being planned, it was announced today.

Such funds in other councils have helped finance camp construction and maintenance, freeing other contributions for operating budgets and making possible greater flexibility in financial planning. The local council's trust fund dates back to 1929 and has been increased recently by several bequests.

Tax advantages of trust fund gifts are being cited. Contributions can take any of a number of forms, including direct gifts, insurance policies, government bonds, real estate, living trusts, stocks, wills and testamentary trusts.

Values of trust funds to scouting have been outlined by G. H. Sternberg, council president, and A. P. Steinhilber, finance chairman. Others active in the plan are Eugene Coe, council executive, and Henry D. Karand, jeff, trust fund general chairman. Prospective Judge Austin Lewis has agreed to prepare forms for codicils, and Donald Hayes is to prepare a brochure and file folder.

Those appointed to assist in developing contact lists are Randall Robertson, C. E. Townsend, A. J. Mueller Jr. and Harold Fischer, Quad-Cities; George McCormick, Herbert Esterlein and Matthew Welch, Collinsville; Arthur Bueker, Robert Simon, Leo Duttman and Leiland Henry, Edwardsville; Elvin Feenher, Roscoe Menz and Norbert Zahner, Highland; and Henry Mathewson, Robert Smith, Roger Redden and Douglas Holmes, Greenville. Others are to be added.

Fined After Pistol Flourishing Incident

William E. Adams Jr., 25, of East St. Louis and Charles Jones, 29, of Lovejoy were each fined $85 plus costs this morning on charges stemming from a pistol flourishing incident Saturday afternoon.

Adams pleaded guilty to flourishing a deadly weapon and Jones to disorderly conduct before Justice Police Magistrate Wesley Edwards.

Police said the two admitted they were in the Venice Food Center at 3001 Douglas street at 1 p.m. Saturday, and that Adams pulled the pistol from his pocket.

Adams replaced the pistol before either of the men said anything to anyone in the store and then fled, police said. Police believe they planned a hold-up, but saw a police car nearby. Descriptions of the men led to their identification. Adams was later arrested by East St. Louis police, and Jones by Brooklyn police.

Circuit Court Judges Outline Procedure To Avoid Delays

The February docket conference call at the end of this month in the Madison county circuit court will institute new procedures designed to speed the disposition of cases.

Three courts will be operating full time, with Judges Joseph J. Barr, Harold R. Clark and James O. Monroe Jr. presiding.

A fourth judge, County Judge Michael Kinney, will be on a stand-by basis for circuit court cases, and Probate Judge Austin Lewis will handle criminal cases.

Filing or discovery procedures during the month preceding the trial will be treated as "hardly, undiligent or dilatory" since all cases on the February call are more than a year old.

Trial delays for such matters, according to the judges, will be viewed with dismay and avoided.

Noonday Optimists See Science Demonstration

A demonstration of the laser light was given Thursday at the luncheon program of the Noonday Optimist club. The program chairman was Paul Stout, local Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. manager. He introduced D. R. Hargis of his company who gave an illustrated talk on "Mystery and Mastery of Light."

The laser light has the ability to carry within a three-quarter inch beam of concentrated light waves all the telephone, radio and television communications now handled by a vast amount of equipment. The beam spreads only six inches in 100 miles. It already has been reflected from the moon and is used in delicate surgery.

Thirty-eight persons attended the meeting at the Elks' club. Edward Applepie of Illinois Power Co. was a guest.

Fined For Speeding

Donald R. Stanton, 22, of 2036 Quincy street, was fined $25 and costs Thursday by Police Magistrate Casparovic for speeding 35 mph in a 30 mph zone. He also was fined $10 and costs for careless driving. Stanton was also arrested Wednesday afternoon at 234 wards and August street.

$15,000 County Sales Taxes For 3 Months In Row

Madison county's share of county sales tax revenue for October will amount to $15,305, County Clerk Eulalia Hotz announced this week after receiving word from Illinois Revenue Department Director Theodore J. Isaacs. The tax netted $15,404 in September, $15,637 in August and a monthly average of $15,709 so far for 1962.

Retailers' occupation taxes collected were listed as $15,907 and service occupation taxes $35 in October. From the $15,943 total, $637 or 4% was deducted to meet administrative costs incurred by the state.

"The state treasurer has been notified to issue a warrant to you in the amount of $15,305," Isaacs related. "Because of the number of court orders pending at the present time, all protest payments are being deducted and will be released by the treasurer in accordance with court decisions."

Ahead Of Previous Years

Revenue for the county treasury from the half-cent-a-dollar levy has reached $137,045 for the first ten months of 1962, compared to $120,845 and $120,382 at similar points in 1961 and 1960.

A new one-year county record seems certain for 1962, for which tabulations will be completed in March.

The current grand total of $461,339 dating back to Oct. 1, 1959, consists of $29,558 in the last quarter of that year, $146,613 in the following year and $148,071 in 1961.

Glover Sentenced To 3 Years For Auto Thefts

(Special from Springfield)

Clyde Ray Glover, 30, formerly of Granite City, was sentenced to two three-year terms in a federal prison Thursday by U. S. District Judge Omer Poos on two charges of interstate transportation of stolen autos from St. Louis to Granite City.

Glover's sentences are to run concurrently. He entered guilty pleas on Jan. 8.

Glover lived in trailer cars in this area and was indicted on two counts last June 19. He was to have been arraigned July 9, but the case was continued. On Aug. 9, his $2000 bail was forfeited, and it was on Dec. 1 he was taken into custody by FBI agents at his former home in Senath, Mo.

Public Hearing On $990,990 Levee District Budget Feb. 8

East Side Levee & Sanitary District budgetary costs will show a slight decrease for the second consecutive year, provided a proposed budget and appropriation ordinance is adopted without change by levee district trustees on Feb. 8.

However, the new $990,990 budget does not reflect the proposed expenditure of $1,280,000 for a trunk sewer line in Centerville township, pump station automation and several other small projects.

This year's proposed budget is $14,250 below the 1962 figure of $1,005,240. The 1961 budget did not include a $1,833,000 general obligation bond issue to finance 10 levee district construction projects, including the replacement of the Terrace Lane trunk sewer in Granite City.

The latest general obligation bond issue, last which the district can float under a new state law, will be included in the listing of funds available and estimated receipts during 1963.

The 1963 budget, to be adopted following a public hearing on Feb. 8, will give the district $930,900 in general operating funds for the year, once $60,000 is deducted for deficiencies in the collection of taxes levied in 1959. The deducted figure is the same as in 1962.

Departmental Breakdown

Cuts in the budget included a $3300 reduction in project costs to $407,640, the lowering of administrative costs by $11,500 to $93,550, and maintenance costs of $273,300, about $3900 less than in 1962.

District police costs remain at $40,900, the municipal retirement fund is up $5000 to $60,000, and engineering costs up $1450 to $53,600.

Salaries, which are included in the general categories listed above, remain at $45,000 for administration, $40,000 for policemen and $40,000 for engineering, while maintenance salaries reflect a proposed cut of $10,000 to $130,000.

The district must publish its budget and appropriation ordinance by Feb. 11, and will establish its tax rate on Feb. 21.

Deutschmann-Holly Wedding Sunday At St. John Church

St. John United Church of Christ on Nameok road was the scene of the wedding Sunday evening of Misses Gail and Carol Holly, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McGee Holly, 1504 Kirkpatrick, and Ronald Deutschmann, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernal Deutschmann, 2234 East 24th street.

White flowers decorated the sanctuary. Preceding the 8 o'clock ceremony performed by Rev. Paul Surbey, pastor, Miss Cindy Zahn sang the Lord's Prayer, accompanied by Mrs. Isabel Schmitt, organist, who played the wedding march and recessional.

In the absence of the bride's father, Sgt. Holly, who is in military service in Germany, her brother, Gerald Holly, gave her in marriage. The wedding gown of white satin brocade was street-length with a round neckline and long sleeves. A small hat formed of a fabric bow and sequins and pearls held in place a short veil and the bride carried a white orchid on a ribbon.

A maid of honor, Miss Theresa Griffith, and bridesmaid, Miss Kathy Deutschmann, the bridegroom's sister, wore identical dresses. The brides were preceded over green velvet and the skirts were mint green satin. Small headpieces and veils completed their costumes and they held bouquets of white carnations tipped with green.

Larry Deutschmann was his brother's best man, and Denny Reeder, Leo DeFauver and Paul DeGonia served as groomsmen and ushers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Holly selected a light blue wool sheath, a matching hat, white accessories and a corsage of white carnations tipped with blue. The bridegroom's mother was in a dress of light blue and tulle cloth and a blue flowered hat. Her flowers were light yellow carnations.

The wedding reception was held at the church and the newlyweds left later for a short honeymoon in Chicago. They will live in Rolla, Mo., while Mr. Deutschmann is completing his studies at the Missouri School of Mines and Metallurgy. He will graduate in June.

Both young people were graduated from the Granite City high school, and the bride has been employed in the bookkeeping department of the Mercantile Trust Co., St. Louis. Miss Jo Anne Singleton presided over the guest book at the reception.

A sack luncheon was served at noon with Mrs. Ed Goodman and Mrs. Lawrence Miller as hostesses. The business meeting was called to order afterward by Mrs. Milton Schwendemann, chairman. The 17 members responded to roll call with "A habit I would like to break."

Announcement was made of the annual Homemakers Extension meeting in Urbana Jan. 30-31, reservations for which must be in the Home Advisors office by Jan. 24.

The group will make cancer dressings Jan. 23 at a meeting in the home of Mrs. J. D. Bink in Collinsville with a sack luncheon served at noon.

Mrs. Hastings presented the health lesson on "Nutrition for Teenagers" and the minor lesson, "Using A Tracing Wheel," was discussed by Mrs. Marvin Dean.

A maid of honor, Miss Joan Pritchett, and bridesmaid, Miss Jeanne Lindley, wore knee-length full skirted dresses of emerald green satin brocade with matching satin roses holding in place short veils. Both carried colonial bouquets of snowdrift pom poms.

The bridegroom, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thurston, 4832 Warnock avenue, had Larry Wofford and Talmage Hillman as best man and groomsmen. Herman Schoeber and Donald Whitehead served as ushers.

Local Boats Will Need Decals As Well As Numbers

More than 5000 licensed boat owners in Madison county are being issued two validation decals with each boat renewal certificate issued by the Motorboat License Division.

William T. Lodge, director of the Illinois Department of Conservation and Donald L. Hastings, Madison county clerk, said the department report that the purpose of the orange and white decals is to identify the boats. The decals are required by law and are not optional. The current regulations require that the decals be displayed on the right of the number on each side of the boat. Boat owners are advised to display the decals to forestall frequent stopping by law enforcement officials.

The decals are to be displayed to the right of the number on each side of the boat. Boat owners are advised to display the decals to forestall frequent stopping by law enforcement officials.

About 100,000 motorboat certificates of registration will be renewed this year. Boat owners are urged to renew early. They will not lose any time on their previous registration, because all renewals will be dated for three years from the present expiration date. The current registration law went into effect three years ago.

Applications for renewal must be complete, containing all information requested concerning boat descriptions. Owners must sign the application or it will be returned without being processed, and the $3 renewal fee must be included.

Boat owners who do not renew their certificates by the expiration date will be liable to a fine and will have to purchase a new boat number, Hastings explained.

MHS Suffers 1st Home Court Loss

Edwardsville
Shoots 57%
Wins 70 To 62

Edwardsville's 13th-ranked Tigers claimed the distinction today of being the first basketball club to get the best of Madison on the Trojans' home court this season.

The quick-moving Bengals of Coach Ron Harris opened up a six-point first-quarter lead and then beat off repeated rallies by the Big Green to score a 70-62 victory, their fifth of the season to go with four losses.

It was a wild and wide-open basketball exhibition from start to finish, and featured the whistling of a technical foul on MHS Coach Earl McCannahan and the calling of an intentional foul on Trojan Tom Lubak in the final five seconds of play.

Both Harris and McCannahan were disgruntled with the officiating, or what both said was the officiating. The Edwardsville defense limited a Madison scorer Cecil Bell to 21 points, some five below his season's average.

"But Bell didn't get a clean shot in the post all night," McCannahan said. "They (Edwardsville) were belling him, bumping him and holding him, and he shot poorly as a result."

McCannahan rose to dispute a call once too often in the third quarter, and referee Keith Packer awarded the Tigers a technical foul shot.

Bill Stedwell, Bell himself, had pulled Madison through if he had been available for four fouls in the first minutes and had to sit out better than half of the second period.

Ed Harris and Hayes Wright took up some of the scoring slack, but not enough of it.

Bob Harris, who stepped into a starting assignment for the Tigers when first-string postman Bob Hoskins quit the team last month, came through with 16 points and 16 rebounds for Edwardsville. "He was the difference," McCannahan said, and opposing Coach Ron Harris agreed. Harris (the player) plunked in eight of nine shots, several of them on fast breaks.

Tigers Shout Well

Madison trailed by six at half-time but cut the gap to four twice in the third period as the Trojan press began to take effect. "But just when we'd get within a bucket of being right back, the game Madison scored on them on fast breaks."

Madison hit a six-point run in the fourth quarter, but Harris with the big two-point shot, and McCannahan said, "They (Edwardsville) were belling him, bumping him and holding him, and he shot poorly as a result."

Both Perform Poorly In Low-Scoring
Game; Free Throws Deciding Factor

Buck fever struck in an unlikely spot—the Collinsville high school gymnasium—Friday night, where the home team Kahoks recovered from the disease first to hand visiting Granite City a 54-42 setback in an important Southwestern Conference basketball game which gave CHS revenge for its only previous loss this season.

Both clubs performed well below their earlier standards as the Kahoks, behind the clutch play of guard Dave Russell—scored the only three points in the game—were outperformed by the basketball jitters—maintained a first-place tie in the Southwestern standings with Belleville.

The Maroons were hard at work downing Wood River 54-45 the same evening. Both of the top contenders have 6-1 league records, and will meet in a second time Feb. 1 in Belleville. Granite City is in third place with a 4-2 mark.

Collinsville shot an amazingly poor 23.3 from the field, had no free throws and grabbed seven rebounds and still won. The Warriors had a 395 night for the first time.

The difference was at the free-throw line: rather, Mr. Russell's work from there. He earned 14 of 19 opportunities and finished in a tie with teammate Roger Bohmstedt for game-scoring honors with 22 points.

Russell "He's a fine ballplayer," said Coach Vergil Fletcher, "and was instrumental in making Collinsville's full-court zone work." "He's a real shooter," said the Warriors. "The Warriors repeatedly threw the ball away against him in the first half, and he kept shooting his shots when they did manage to reach the front court."

Moore Has Off Night

And, to make matters worse, big gun George Moore had an off night from the field. "He missed a couple of easy shots early," a disappointed Coach Andy Sullivan said after the Warriors had seemed to get down on himself.

Moore was still the game's outstanding defensive player. He crammed numerous Collinsville shots and picked off 17 rebounds in giving a consistent effort in that department.

Brief Lead

The Warriors led briefly, 5-4, in the first two minutes of play on Moore's game-opening layup. Roger Bohmstedt's rebound and free throw by Jim Proffitt.

Score by quarters:
Madison 11 17 13 21 62
Edwardsville 17 17 16 20 70

UNHAPPY WARRIORS

City players George Moore 20, 531 and Jim Can 351 mirrored anything but joy despite successful call to a mixed Collinsville shot Friday night. Actually, the two may have been feeling the pressure of a tension-packed contest on the Kahoks court. Collinsville's victory in this game is particularly visible behind Moore. Kahoks scored 54-42 Southwest Conference victory.

COOLIDGE RALLIES TO Beat Florissant, 29-20

Pin in late matches by Warren Evans and Jim Parker enlivened Collinsville's junior high school wrestlers to come from behind Thursday afternoon and defeat Florissant JHS on the losers' mats, 29-20.

The Braves will meet Florissant again here Thursday night, 8 o'clock. Collinsville has a 7-3 record. The match results at Florissant:

95 pounds — Jan Gilcho (C) defeated Mike McGowan, 2-0; 100 — John Kozayak (C) and Mike Anns (F) drew, 1-1.

127 — Summers (F) defeated Jim Valoff, 9-2; 133 — Mike Andria (C) pinned Nelsen 5:30; 138 — Mock (F) pinned Mike Genovese, 3-45; 145 — Zangara (F) defeated Frank Crook, 7-2; 154 — Hanson (F) defeated Dan Norris, 6-3; 165 — Warren Evans (C) pinned Shattles, 4:50; 180 — Jim Parker (C) pinned Brad 5:30; 190 — Dewey Bell (C) and Laramie (F) drew, 5-0.

Grit Grinders Club

Jim Richee was elected president of the Grit Grinders Club during a meeting at the home of the club members.

The club also welcomed two new members, Turner Cogins and Mary Brackett. Richee reviewed the past season's activities, which resulted in a 12-12 record in 1962 contests, and looked over new equipment and models in the building.

The membership voted to apply for an AMA meet sanction for the 1963 season at the First Granite City National Bank.

Both Perform Poorly In Low-Scoring
Game; Free Throws Deciding Factor

Buck fever struck in an unlikely spot—the Collinsville high school gymnasium—Friday night, where the home team Kahoks recovered from the disease first to hand visiting Granite City a 54-42 setback in an important Southwestern Conference basketball game which gave CHS revenge for its only previous loss this season.

Both clubs performed well below their earlier standards as the Kahoks, behind the clutch play of guard Dave Russell—scored the only three points in the game—were outperformed by the basketball jitters—maintained a first-place tie in the Southwestern standings with Belleville.

The Maroons were hard at work downing Wood River 54-45 the same evening. Both of the top contenders have 6-1 league records, and will meet in a second time Feb. 1 in Belleville. Granite City is in third place with a 4-2 mark.

Collinsville shot an amazingly poor 23.3 from the field, had no free throws and grabbed seven rebounds and still won. The Warriors had a 395 night for the first time.

The difference was at the free-throw line: rather, Mr. Russell's work from there. He earned 14 of 19 opportunities and finished in a tie with teammate Roger Bohmstedt for game-scoring honors with 22 points.

Russell "He's a fine ballplayer," said Coach Vergil Fletcher, "and was instrumental in making Collinsville's full-court zone work." "He's a real shooter," said the Warriors. "The Warriors repeatedly threw the ball away against him in the first half, and he kept shooting his shots when they did manage to reach the front court."

Moore Has Off Night

And, to make matters worse, big gun George Moore had an off night from the field. "He missed a couple of easy shots early," a disappointed Coach Andy Sullivan said after the Warriors had seemed to get down on himself.

Moore was still the game's outstanding defensive player. He crammed numerous Collinsville shots and picked off 17 rebounds in giving a consistent effort in that department.

Brief Lead

The Warriors led briefly, 5-4, in the first two minutes of play on Moore's game-opening layup. Roger Bohmstedt's rebound and free throw by Jim Proffitt.

Faculty Discussions Set At University

A series of faculty meetings, two at the Edwardsville campus and four at the Carbondale campus, has been scheduled by Southern Illinois President Delyte W. Morris. The series will feature question and answer sessions.

The action came after faculty members deplored the loss of personal contact with the president. The combined faculty of the two campuses has quadrupled since 1948 when Dr. Morris was installed and student enrollment has increased from 2855 to 16,240.

Dr. Morris cleared his calendar and arranged for a series of discussions by relatively small groups of faculty members which, taken together, will include the entire university faculty.

County Ends Year With Balance Of Over $103,000

Madison county ended 1962 with a general revenue budget surplus of $103,562, according to the annual report of John L. Kravak, county auditor.

Kravak attributed the savings to "economy-minded practices," and congratulated "all county board members, committees, county officials and department heads."

The auditor said no accurate comparison with the previous year could be made because the county operated on a fiscal year coinciding with the calendar year for the first time in 1962.

Appropriations for 1962 totaled $1,244,933, according to Kravak's report. Expenditures listed amounted to $1,130,710. Some funds carried over cash from the preceding year, while some began the year at a deficit.

SWIU Placement Service Surveys Recent Graduates

Starting salaries for 1962 local area campus graduates of Southern Western Illinois University averaged $5218 for those entering the business world, and $7862 for those going into technical occupations.

Beginning salaries for graduates entering the elementary teaching field averaged $4710. Secondary teachers started at an average of $4849.

These figures were released this week in a report by SWIU's placement service supervisor, David R. Van Horn. It shows that the 284 graduates in the class of 1962 are located in 15 states, Canada, and American Samoa. Twenty-one are continuing studies for advanced degrees.

One hundred and four members of the class accepted positions in business, industry, social, state and governmental agencies. Eleven are in military service, four were unemployed as of Nov. 1, and 18 did not respond to inquiries concerning their employment.

Placement Registration

The campus placement service had 159 of the 284 graduates registered with it. Van Horn said that the placement service had 127 companies, schools, social and governmental agencies had over 1200 interviews with degree candidates for positions within their organizations. Representatives came from various cities in Illinois and Missouri, and from as far away as Michigan, New Mexico and California.

A complete set of confidential resumes of these secure positions was sent to each of its registrants, Van Horn said. During the year nearly 3000 sets of confidential resumes were presented to employers on their behalf.

Not all students at the campus take advantage of the placement service to secure jobs. Some of them secure positions on their own or through friends, family or faculty advisors. Others continue in jobs they held while attending the university.

The university's placement service, Van Horn emphasized, makes no charge for its services to registrants or to employers using its facilities.

Writing, Engineering Courses To Be Offered

The class will meet for 11 weekly sessions and the enrollment fee is $22 per person.

A Professional Engineering Refresher course reviewing engineering principles and intended for those who wish to take the State of Illinois Professional Engineering examination is scheduled for Thursday evenings beginning Feb. 7, at 6:30 p.m., in Room 104. This class will also meet 11 times and the tuition fee is $30 per person.

MARILYN WECKMAN, local baton twirler who will compete next weekend in the national contest to be held at St. Paul, Minn., is shown with most of the 65 trophies she has won in four years.

This Weekend At St. Paul Miss Weckman To Compete In National Baton Contest

Marilyn Weckman, 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Weckman, 2908 Wayne avenue, will be the first Granite City girl to compete in the Baton Twirling National Contest at St. Paul, Minn., on Saturday, Jan. 26.

Marilyn, who placed second in the junior division at the state contest last July, will leave Wednesday for St. Paul with her instructor, Miss Marilyn Champron.

The young twirler has won 65 trophies and 25 medals along with three princess trophies and four queen titles in competition in five states—Illinois, Missouri, Indiana, Iowa and Wisconsin.

In the state contest, she competed against 40 girls in the 11-14 age group. For the national contest, five girls are selected from each of the 50 states.

She and Miss Champron are to arrive in St. Paul on Thursday morning and will hold practice sessions Thursday and Friday to prepare for Saturday's contest.

The contest is held in conjunction with the St. Paul Winter Carnival, and Saturday evening the local pair will attend the

Tax Refunds May Be Taken In Savings Bonds

Taxpayers were reminded today of the new plan allowing them to take their tax refund in U. S. Savings Bonds, by Jay G. Philpitt, District director of Internal Revenue Service.

Beginning with the 1962 Income Tax Return, taxpayers will be given the opportunity of taking their refunds in Series E Savings Bonds in addition to the standard options of cash or applying the refund to next year's tax.

When Savings Bonds are chosen, the smallest possible number of the highest denomination bonds will be issued, along with a check to cover any remaining balance of a dollar or more.

The idea of allowing a taxpayer to choose between Savings Bonds and cash is not new. Taxpayers have been recommending it for years. What enabled the Treasury to offer it with the 1962 returns was the recent installation of high-speed data processing equipment to handle tax returns.

The Treasury also conducted a survey of taxpayers to determine their interest in a Savings Bonds refund. A significant number of those questioned said they would take their tax refunds in Series E Bonds if given the option.

Last year approximately five billion dollars in refunds were returned to American taxpayers. Sales of Savings Bonds could thus be swelled by many millions of dollars in the next few months, thus putting more of the public debt into the hands of small savers.

Tax forms—1040 (long) and 1040A (short)—have been changed to provide an extra space in which taxpayers may elect U. S. Savings Bonds for their refunds. Information on the option also appears in the instructions for both of these forms.

Farmer Participation Lowers Grain Stock

Farmers' participation in the 1961 and 1962 feed grain programs is bringing about a one-third reduction in feed grain stocks, Edwin C. Rethmeier, chairman, Madison County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, said today.

By next Oct. 1, feed grain stocks are expected to be about 28 million tons below the 94.7 million-ton level of Oct. 1, 1961, he said. Wheat stocks will be about 100 million tons below the next July 1st as a result of participation in the 1962 wheat stabilization program.

The chairman cited these solid achievements in bringing production into line with needs through the diversion of wheat and feed grain acreage to conserving uses. By participating in the diversion programs, the farmer earns a diversion payment and a price-support payment, and he also qualifies for a regular price-support loan or purchase agreement on his crop.

The sign-up period for 1963-crop corn, grain sorghum, barley, and wheat in spring wheat areas under the voluntary feed grain and wheat stabilization programs has been set for Feb. 1 through March 22, 1963. The sign-up period for wheat in winter wheat areas ended Dec. 14.

"We hope," Rethmeier said, "that between now and the time for filing program applications, farmers will get all the facts about the diversion programs and then plan their 1963-crop production around the programs. These 1963 programs provide a means of making further progress toward solving the problems of surplus stocks and low farm income."

Price support on 1963-crop corn, grain sorghum and barley will be available only to producers taking part in the 1963 feed grain program.

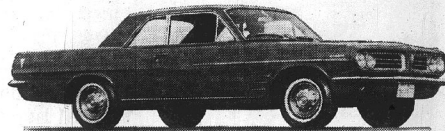

The price-support payments are a new feature of the 1963 diversion programs. They will be made on the normal production of the 1963 feed grain or wheat acreage, as the case may be, regardless of the farm's ac-

While at St. Paul, Miss Champron will attend meetings of the NBTFA judges and teachers.

Air Pollution Study Agreement Is Signed

A positive step was taken Thursday in the direction of doing away with air pollution in the area. An agreement was made at Kiel auditorium authorizing an air pollution study in the St. Louis area by the U. S. Public Health Service.

The agreement was signed by representatives of the St. Louis Development Agency, East St. Louis, East Side Health District, the Illinois Department of Health, the St. Louis Department of Public Safety, the St. Louis County Health Department and the Missouri Division of Health.

Signing of the agreement was in conjunction with a two-state meeting on air pollution presented by the U. S. Public Health Service, Division of Air Pollution, and sponsored by the Interstate Air Pollution Study Group. William F. Hoelscher of Granite City attended, representing the East Side Manufacturers' Association.

Other representatives of the Quad-Cities attending included Granite City Mayor Leonard J. Johnston, Russell E. Stump, director of engineering, and Claude Knapp, process engineer, both of Union Starch & Refining Co.; Hugh L. Roddy, mechanical superintendent of General Steel Industries, Inc.; and A. S. Stever, director of utilities, Donald F. Cairns, blast furnace plant engineer, John J. Huck, superintendent of utilities, and Kurt J. Merz, chief combustion engineer, all of Granite City Steel Co. The study will begin about Feb. 1 and will include an investigation into the effects of contaminants on human health in a seven-county metropolitan area.

Dr. Harry Heiman, assistant chief of the Public Health Service, Air Pollution Division, discussed fatal smog incidents, those of Donora, Pa., the Meuse valley and Europe. He discussed diseases which are made worse by pollutants.

Such diseases include those of the respiratory tract, lung cancer, bronchial asthma, other bronchial diseases and heart, eye and nose ailments.

The Rev. W. R. Warner, chairman of the East St. Louis Air Pollution Abatement Commission, also spoke briefly.

$2000 Fire Damage To Fireman's Garage

Damage was estimated at $2000 to the garage of a Long Lake volunteer fireman yesterday afternoon. The blaze was caused by an overheated stove and was discovered by 61 firemen who were at the station.

8 Persons Hurt In Weekend Traffic Mishaps

Eight persons suffered injuries in four of 18 traffic accidents occurring in and near the Quad-Cities over the weekend. Three of the local persons were hurt in a one-auto mishap near Greenville, Mo.

Two hurt on McNair—Two persons were hurt at McNair avenue and Edwardsville road at 3:10 p.m. Friday when the left front of the auto of Mrs. Irena D. Carter, 69, of 1809 Third street, Madison, collided with the parked car of Dossie Ridgeway, 43, of Collinsville. Ridgeway, who was seated in the parked vehicle, sustained injuries to his left shoulder. Minor injuries were listed for Mrs. Carter, whose car was towed to a garage. Ridgeway said both sides of his auto were damaged.

Mrs. Carter was turning left onto McNair and was unable to remain in the correct lane due to another car approaching on Edwardsville road.

Two injured on bridge—Two injuries resulted from a three-car crash on the McKinnon bridge immediately west of the main superstructure at 11:40 a.m. Friday.

Leland Minter, St. Louis, was taken by ambulance to the Missouri Baptist Hospital, St. Louis, for treatment of possible internal injuries. Alfred E. Watson, 29, of 25534 Benton street, suffered a tongue injury.

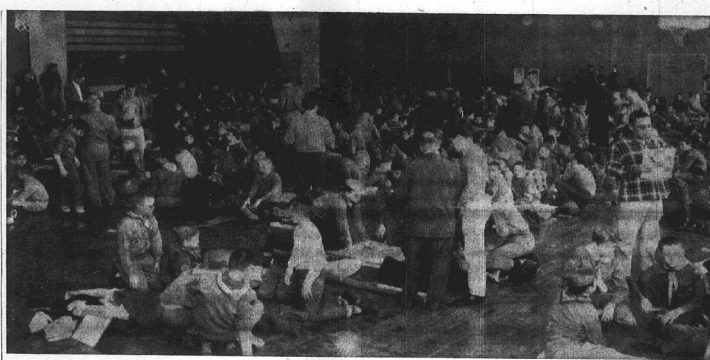

Watson had halted his east-bound auto until a westbound train had cleared the bridge and had turned onto the Missouri railroad trestle. He then started up and front of his car, wedged with Minter's auto, westbound in the center lane. The Minter car was thrown against the auto of Walter H. O'Hara, 59, St. Louis, westbound in the outer lane.

O'Hara reported damage to the left front and right rear of his vehicle. All three autos were towed from the scene.

Auto Hits Pole—Dean Stevens, 23, of 2106 Missouri avenue, was injured about 3:20 a.m. Saturday when his auto went out of control and hit a pole along 20th street near the railroad crossing. He was given emergency care at the hospital.

cleaning equipment and saw the flames through a window. The garage belonged to James Williams, 4149 Pontoon road, who was at home, but was not aware of the blaze until firemen arrived. Damaged were a food-filled deep freeze unit and a number of power tools and other equipment.

THE FORUM

WELCOME HODGE BACK TO HIS HOME COMMUNITY

To the Editor:

As a citizen of Granite City for the past fifty years, a friend of Orville E. Hodge during this time, I submit the following to the people of our community.

Orville Hodge will soon be released from Menard penitentiary and, by his own choice, will return to Granite City to be at home with his family and among those he regards as his friends. This, in my opinion, is as it should be, and I sincerely hope that the people of our town will welcome him as such.

It is reasonable to expect some people to act otherwise and these are certainly entitled to their opinion. However, I feel that if some of these people had been as close to Orville Hodge as I have been for several years, they might see things in a very different light.

During my visits to Menard I have found him to be a very humble, unassuming, and a very kind man. He is a man of many qualities. A paradoxical amount of truth wherein, on the one hand, a process is used to purify a toxic substance from our water supply, and on the other hand, the same process is used to purify a man's character.

Personal opinions have been expressed by engineering personnel and by the men of the Illinois Health Service figures, is long by a margin of better than two to one that men should be allowed to alleviate the odor and taste included the addition of chlorine and activated filtration by activated charcoal.

Here we have a situation having a somewhat contradictory quality. A paradoxical amount of truth wherein, on the one hand, a process is used to purify a toxic substance from our water supply, and on the other hand, the same process is used to purify a man's character.

Warden Randolph has repeatedly stated that he has been doing so hard in his behalf during these past dark years.

During his years at Menard he has been a model prisoner and has worked relentlessly to entertain and teach his fellow prisoners. I could go on and on relating the good he has done at the prison, but time and space will not permit.

Warden Randolph has repeatedly stated that he has been doing so hard in his behalf during these past dark years.

Tax Cut May Be Worth The Experiment But Deficit Spending Is Harmful To All

We do not profess to know whether proposed federal tax cuts will generate such increased economic activity that total tax revenue will rise. Maybe it is worth the experiment—especially if the revision is done in such a way that it has a real chance to succeed. The "fine print" in the legislation will be important.

But we are convinced that deficit spending, locally or nationally, in the home or in government, has serious drawbacks, which become even more serious when continued in an ever-expanding pattern. Economists will be doing a disservice if they remove all public apprehension over the rising public debt.

The old saw of "we owe it to ourselves" fails to note that most taxes come from lower and middle-income Americans and interest on the debt is paid mostly to banks, insurance companies and higher-income individuals. The "we" which owes is not the same "we" that is owed, and paid.

The contention that deficit spending can assure stable and lasting economic growth has not yet been proven. There is no question, however, that "red ink" policies inevitably do encourage inflation, which robs everyone and diminishes world confidence in the dollar.

And this sad point is indisputable: Rising debt adds to the oppressive tax burden without providing any goods, services or financial benefit in return.

For centuries, the British were known as the nation which ruled the waves. The question now is whether they will waive their rule and apply to landborne navigation. When Sweden switches in 1967, Great Britain will be the only remaining country in which autos are driven on the left side of the road.

Impressive Start On Year's Business By County Board

An impressive start on the new year's business was made by the Madison County Board of Supervisors at its January meeting. There is widespread hope that the February session will bring still another progressive step—adoption of zoning.

In its deliberations last week, the County Board approved investment of nearly $1 million in idle county funds, voted to study automated accounting and records systems for possible use in county offices, and decided to explore advantages of a merit hiring and promotion system for recommendation to the state legislature, and withheld action on a new effort to lengthen county tavern hours.

The public interest was served in each of these actions, both positive and negative.

New University Of Illinois Arena Forerunner Of Local Exposition Hall

Whether Granite City, Madison, Venice or Lincoln will qualify remains to be seen, but whichever city wins the region's state high school basketball tournament March 22-23 will play in an architecturally unique structure, the new University of Illinois assembly hall.

The "Flying saucer" possibly being a concrete construction technique, features a 400-foot-wide folded concrete dome weighing 10 million pounds. Financed by self-liquidating revenue bonds, the new building has a seating capacity of 18,000, including 16,000 permanent seats, and can be used for plays, concerts, meetings and other purposes besides athletics.

While not as large, an equally versatile exposition hall seems destined to be built on the local university campus within the next few years.

We also feel that with proper observation of these areas, this problem would have received the consideration it rightly deserves. It is our intention to do everything possible to have this situation rectified.

Democracy Puts A "Do It Yourself" Obligation On Each Citizen

That democracy is a "do it yourself" proposition was made clear by John McBride in his address at the Associated Retailers' annual banquet. This is the cost of our priceless possession.

There can be responsible, efficient government only when citizens persevere good candidates to run, work to elect them, constructively praise and criticize their performance and then help to re-elect them if justified by their record.

The talk was more general than some had expected, in view of his previous comments on the relationship of progressive municipal government to industrial growth prospects. But there can be no argument with an appeal in any form for increased citizen interest and participation in civic and governmental affairs.

Granite Cityans have an unusually broad opportunity this spring, for vacancies have increased the number of aldermanic posts to be filled to 10—62% of the 16-member council.

Will citizens take enough interest to elect a council majority which will take an interest in the needs and wishes of the public?

Whenever and wherever citizens fail to do this, they, their families and their community are the losers.

Urges For Self Improvement Filling Night School Classes

The record enrollment of 1550 in the 1962-63 Granite City adult education program indicates that this community, among those whose residents are showing increasing interest in self improvement.

Learning cannot merely be confined to the early years, but must be a lifelong process. Judging by the many night classes, Quad-Cityans recognize this fact.

The passing years bring so many changes that sometimes it is difficult to maintain the equilibrium. Reassurance is afforded by a yearly Madison county statistical report showing that June, which rhymes with honeymoon, is still the favorite month for weddings.

Quad-Cityans Bigger (And Better?) Than Ever

Recent purchase of band uniforms for local students was news even though there were other uniforms on hand. The reason? Quad-City youngsters are getting bigger—not just individually but in comparison with preceding generations.

A study by Dr. R. A. McCance, an authority on human physiology, shows that the trend is nationwide. Both school children and adults are taller and heavier than in past years, even though newborn babies are about the same size and weight as a century ago.

It suggests two possible reasons—nutrition has improved, and there have been sharp declines in infectious diseases. But regardless of the cause, there is no doubt that people are bigger, if not better, than ever, all of which means they break can damage eyes. When fired at moving autos, they conceivably could cause a fatal collision.

More severe penalties for violation of local air rifle laws should be meted out to the youngsters—and their parents—think twice about this kind of vandalism.

Severe Punishment For Air Rifle 'Pranks'

Use of air rifles has advanced beyond the prank stage, judging by the frequency and extent of property damage and the potential personal injury. The pellets and whistles they break can damage eyes. When fired at moving autos, they conceivably could cause a fatal collision.

More severe penalties for violation of local air rifle laws should be meted out to the youngsters—and their parents—think twice about this kind of vandalism.

Never postpone until tomorrow what you can postpone until the day after tomorrow.

THE PASTOR SPEAKS

REV. HOWARD E. WHITE
 Third Baptist Church
 "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land." II Chronicles 7:14

A spiritual awakening is widely recognized as our greatest need today. There is a lot of talk about it, but not much actually being done. A spiritual awakening can come to each individual, to each church, to Granite City and our nation if we, who profess to be Christians, really want it and are willing to pay the price.

The power of God is available for revival, now, if we "humble ourselves, and seek His face." A revival is costly—but worth it. Do you dare to accept the challenge? Are you willing to pay the price for a revival in your own soul?

Unfading Influence
 In considering the chances of a spiritual awakening, the picture is not too bright, because your own soul?

OUTLAW PROFESSIONAL BOXING IN ILLINOIS

It's not the most important measure to come before the session, but a bill that is going to be presented would outlaw professional boxing in Illinois. The professional boxing will have my support. Professional boxing is "sport" only in the sense that Nero's throwing Christians to the lions was a sport.

It is the only "sport" in which the goal is physical injury to the opponent.

Death Or Brain Damage

There are nine boxers killed each year, on an average, and this hits the headlines, but what does not hit the headlines are the many boxers who end up "punished" each year.

The constant pounding of the head results in severe damage to the brain. There are many who have been fortunate enough to come away from the "sport" unscathed, with no ill effects, but there are many others who have not been that lucky.

By comparison, bull fighting and cock fighting, which are outlawed—relatively humane. I don't favor either of these "sports," but we in the United States can hardly claim any moral superiority on this issue.

Most of the profit from these bouts does not go to the men who fight, but to the managers and promoters.

Link With Underworld

Another factor that must be considered is that too often there is a tie-in between this "sport" and the underworld. Too many who read the newspapers, this does not need documentation.

Zoning Aids Majority Yet Protects Rights

(The following study deals with the relationship between the needs of the majority and rights and proposed Madison county zoning.)

Then civilization first flowered in ancient Greece, Aristotle described a democracy—a description that is still valid today. It is the rule of the majority, not the rule of the minority, and accurate descriptions of the United States government and our political and governing system.

Aristotle said, "The basis of a democratic state is liberty; liberty, according to the common opinion of men, can only be enjoyed in such a state. . . . One principle of liberty is the rule and be ruled in turn, and in democratic justice is the application of numerous rights of the whole can be the rights of the individual."

Still later, Woodrow Wilson said, "The two major types of government, democracy and autocracy, are determined by the general interests of society and are, indeed, the very bonds of society."

It has always been the case in this country that the majority rules. In adopting the Madison county zoning ordinance, therefore, the will of the majority of the people must be the determining factor. The "common good" is determined by the rule of the majority.

Far, the greatest population in the county resides in the western portion—both in incorporated and in unincorporated areas. At zoning hearings, through the expressed view of supervisors, and in news articles, it has been demonstrated that this large population group is in favor of the zoning ordinance.

It is not only a numerical majority which elects people and adopts issues, but the government must also conform to what the majority of the people want. The majority determines the "common good," and the government must conform to the "common good" of the government.

Historian James Bryce has noted that "The individual counts for less, the mass counts for more" (in the U.S.). Again, the will of the majority will be governed.

The $23,294 October tally raised the total since January to $239,433, a mark which compares with ten-month figures of $207,533 in 1961, the previous high of $218,537 in January-October 1960, $206,584 in 1959, $178,830 in 1958 and $183,130 in 1957.

A breakdown of the $239,433 Quad-City tabulation lists $194,780 returned from Springfield to the city coffers of Granite City, $35,388 to the Madison treasury and $29,264 to Venice city accounts.

In 1960, the ten-month city totals were $176,829, $31,862 and $3,844.

The October 1962 report shows $20,473 for Granite City, $3,720 for Madison and $1,100 for Venice. The month's $23,294 Quad-City amount was topped earlier in 1962 only by May's $25,520 and June's $25,447.

Cuban Mother, Daughters Have New Home Here

A Cuban refugee woman and her two teenage daughters, with the assistance of the Central Christian Church, have found a home in Granite City and seek to become a part of the community.

Mrs. Maria A. Fernandez and her daughters, Maria Pardo, 19, and Magaly Pardo, 15, arrived by plane in St. Louis. They were brought here through the national office of the Christian Churches in Indianapolis. The father is still in Cuba.

Their arrival climaxed a harrowing escape from Cuba, in which the mother and daughters fled with others in a fishing boat. They ran out of fuel for the boat, but managed to reach temporary safety on a small island.

Stranded On Island

The escapees were stranded on the island for three days with out water before they were spotted by a U. S. patrol plane. A message dropped from the plane assured them a ship would be sent, and they were soon picked up and taken to Florida.

After a short stay in Florida, the three were brought here through the cooperation of the Central Christian Churches in Madison and St. Clair counties. Two Cuban brothers resettled in East St.

Adult Education Program In Granite City Covers Broad Area To Meet Today's Needs

A national awakening to the importance of adult education and training programs may eventually lead others to an awareness which many Granite City school and industrial leaders already have, a Granite City Steel Co. official said last week.

Bill C. Lovin, training supervisor for the firm, said Granite City high school and Southern Illinois University — working closely with industries here — are providing one of the finest such programs to be found.

In past years, Lovin said, "adult education has been looked on as a side line. Not so any more. I think adult education will become a way of life. We have to continue our education in this fast age."

When Granite City Steel is going to school on their own time, something not unique among local industries. The company arranges in-plant courses for its workers and encourages their participation in regular and high school classes.

Credits Competition

"In the steel business as in any other business," Lovin said in an interview, "the competition is very keen. We always have to do a better job than we did last year—we have to make a better grade of steel, tolerance are closer. It requires better educated workers."

When Granite City Steel sees the need for a particular course, Lovin said, it makes arrangements with the high school or with SIU to teach the course. The firm pays the costs.

In addition to suit in-plant classes or arranged courses taught at the high school, the company encourages its workers to take regularly scheduled college courses by paying half the tuition. Last year, 106 employees did college work for degree credit at various universities.

At present, eight in-plant classes are taught at the steel company.

Youth Arrested After Disturbance Fined $34

Gabriel Beaton, 19, of 2237 Grand avenue, was fined a total of $34 including costs by Police Magistrate Casparovic Thursday afternoon when he pleaded guilty to charges of disorderly conduct, destruction of city property, peace disturbance and resisting arrest. He was given a 60-day sentence in the county jail, suspended for one year of probation.

Beaton had been in the county jail since he was arrested Sunday Jan. 6 and failed to post $500 bond.

His troubles began Jan. 5 when he was held overnight in Granite City with another youth who was charged with speeding and having no driver's license. Beaton was released without charges next morning but came back that evening to see his friend. When he was denied visiting privileges, police said he became belligerent and profane. Patrolman Dean Gageh then attempted to detain Beaton but the youth fled up the stairs and into the main door of the city hall, damaging an inner door as he ran through. Gageh fired a shot and Beaton threw up his hands but continued to run. He headed up 20th street where he was grabbed by three railroad detectives who saw the chase and jumped out of their auto to assist.

Police said Beaton became violent and extremely profane and had to be forcibly subdued. According to Gageh, the youth tore a watch from the wrist of one of the detectives and attempted to stamp on it. Gageh suffered a "bruised shin" in the scuffle.

When put in a cell, Beaton picked up a dinner plate and hurled it through the bars at police, splattering the uniforms of Gageh and two of the railroad detectives.

Beaton's friend subsequently was fined $30 on the traffic charges. Beaton was sentenced twice to six-month terms in the county jail in 1962, once for theft and once for possession of a deadly weapon, using fictitious license plates and having no state license plates.

company, seven by Granite City high school and the other by IBM. The latter is an electronic data processing course for 13 plant engineers. The others are in electronics, pipefitting and electricity, with about 85 workers participating.

Company Meets Cost

Lovin said the state pays 40% of the salary of high school instructors who teach such classes. Granite City Steel Co. pays the rest. Other costs incurred by the employees, including text books, are met by the company.

Lovin feels Granite City is fortunate to have school board members who recognize the value of adult education programs on such a broad basis. The school has given full cooperation, he said, granting the use of its facilities to a great extent.

"The school is very responsive to public requests for adult classes," Lovin said. "Each year local industrial representatives are invited to a meeting to discuss class offerings for the coming year."

He praised the work of St. A. Wittevorcel, who heads the GCIS adult education program. "If a few people in the community request a specific course," he said, "the will arrange such a course if at all possible."

"Too many people still think of adult education as little old ladies going to school to learn to make hats. This just isn't true any more at least not in our community. A list of the course offerings in the current Granite City high school catalog will dispel such ideas."

Cooperation By SIU

Southern Illinois University has also been extremely cooperative in offering such training. Lovin said. A regular schedule of non-credit courses are taught here through the Adult and Technical Education Department headed by E. R. Castevens.

"We go to them and they are willing to give us the best of their facilities," Lovin said. "They will arrange an instructor, help us arrange the curriculum, arrange the time to fit our needs and teach the course in our plant if desirable."

An example of this highly specialized instruction offered by SIU is a general course in metal making taught last year at the plant for 18 of the firm's office employees. The company paid all the costs.

But perhaps the most significant adult training program Granite City Steel Co. has undertaken is one presently in progress. In effect, Lovin explained, it illustrates the firm's total philosophy toward such continued education.

"Our plant supervisors average about 42 years of age," the steel company official said, "and their average education level is less than 12 years of school. The average supervisor has about 23 more years to work."

"His job is getting more and more technical every day. In the past five years we've installed a tremendous amount of new equipment. Many of these men felt they needed an extensive course in metallurgy—but before they could handle such a course they needed chemistry and physics."

"Before studying chemistry and physics, these men needed some basic math and algebra, at least a review of what they had. You can see what an undertaking it was. But of about 400 salaried men in supervisory or allied positions, 110 volunteered to enroll in such a study."

Beginning last September, 80 of the men enrolled in an adult education course taught by Granite City high school. They formed four classes. This semester, some of the men have advanced to chemistry courses, while the others are taking advanced mathematics.

Broad Program Here

Lovin emphasized that such programs are not limited to Granite City Steel Co. Other industries in the community promote similar training, and the SIU industrial extension program is now in its seventh year here.

"It is this advancement at the grass roots level," he said, "that we can take care of continuing education as a way of life. Granite City has made great strides in this direction, and it should be a source of pride to us all."

"And," Lovin concluded, "I think we'll find it will pay great dividends in time to come."

GARY GRAMMER ELECTED

FREEMAN'S PRESIDENT

Gary Grammer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Grammer, 4712 Vincent avenue, has been elected president of his social fraternity, Lambda Chi Alpha, at Northwestern University in Evanston. This is the first time a sophomore has been elected to that office in more than 40 years of the chapter history.

Dean of Men Harry E. McAdams said the election was a significant honor, representing a collective tribute to his dedication, capacity for leadership and willingness to be of service. His previous work and achievements include University Student Senate, Freshman Carnival co-chairman, publicity chairman for Homecoming and outstanding Freshman in his fraternity last year.

Ministerial Association Installs 1963 Officers

Installation of new officers for the Quad-Cities Ministerial Association was conducted Friday during the group's annual banquet for members and their wives.

Picketing Continues At Razing Site

Picketing continues at the National Container Corp. plant in Madison where buildings are in the process of being razed. Informational pickets are being maintained by Laborers Local 397 and Operating Engineers Local 520.

No meetings were held last week between business agents of the two unions and the St. Louis Longshoremen's Union, which has been doing the razing. The longshoremen halted work last week, except for the loading of debris.

Edwin Reiske, president of the Tri-City Trades & Labor Council, said today that meetings are to be scheduled this week between the owner, contractor and unions.

Contentment with the past and the cold conventionalization of materialism are crumbling away.
